What a time we are living in and what love God has lavished upon us that we should be called His children. He has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in heavenly places and has equipped us to fulfill His will on earth as in heaven. The preaching of the gospel is a glorious gift of grace entrusted to those who are willing and obedient. Thank God that He has considered us worthy of this task. We are all God's workmanship created in Christ to do good works which He prepared in advance for us to do. Understanding the analogy of how we are all one body and that together at God's will we are able to accomplish this work that takes the load off of one person. It also keeps us from thinking we alone are responsible for the glorious results and then become prideful. We have all been called to inherit a blessing by blessing others. Right now at this time we are engaging in a massive evangelistic campaign taking place in Honduras, which will produce a great harvest of souls saved, healed, delivered, and set free for God's glory. It is time for each of us to use our talents according to our ability. This is what we all have been praying for, so now let's put some works with our faith by financially supporting this mission. Recently, I heard Arthur Blessitt, a man that has carried a cross as a witness to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ all around the world. He talked about the seed in the barn and how it was meant to be in the ground to bring forth a harvest for the Lord. Then I saw the tears flow from his eyes as he cried out; God please don't let me leave this earth having any seed left in the barn. Then I also broke down with tears crying out with the same conviction for souls. May we all share with this glorious conviction by yielding to the Spirit of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, as we each do our part.

Together we can do it,
Tom
