April 2009 Newsletter

The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, And he who wins souls is wise. (Proverbs 11:30)

Be On Guard - Be Alert - Keep Watch - WATCH

"At that time men will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. And he will send his angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth, to the ends of the heavens." (Mark 13:26-27) "No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Be on guard! Be alert! You do not know when that time will come. It's like a man going away: He leaves his house and puts his servants in charge, each with his assigned task, and tells the one at the door to keep watch. Therefore keep watch because you do not know when the owner of the house will come back -whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or at dawn. If he comes suddenly, do not let him find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to everyone Watch!" (Mark 13:32-37)

As a new Christian I remembered reading these scriptures and how they brought fear. How could I go to sleep thinking Jesus could come back at one of these times, and I would be left behind because I was not watching. Thanks be to God, "I will lie down and sleep in peace", (Psalms 4:8) "For he gives sleep to those he loves." (Psalm.127:2) The key is (The sleep of a laborer is sweet., Ecclesiastes 5:12) we are to labor faithfully with what he has given us. As we are faithful, we experience that sweet rest knowing we are ready for his coming. (In Matthew 25:14-30, we see the parable of the talents.) Though I am convinced we who are faithful will share with the same reward as in Matthew 25:21, 23 which is based on faithfulness. We do not all have the same ability (Matthew 25:15), whether we are considered to have Five, Two, or One talent, our sweet rest and reward is according to the faithful obedience of our ability. It speaks of the servant who had received one talent as having the wrong perspective of his master as I did when I was a new Christian unlearned. Jesus was not saying that all who are given One talent would be like the wicked, lazy, and worthless servant.

He was saying that he who has received even one talent should put it to work so it can earn more. Listen carefully to what the Lord says in verse 27, "How he should have put his money on deposit with the bankers." (Who are the bankers???) This I believe is made clear in verses 16-17, with the servants having Five and Two talents, putting what they had received to work, or in other words, investing as a banker would. Though those only having One talent may think they are incapable of producing a profit with what has been given to them, (Jesus makes it clear that) all it takes is to give to the bankers and it will produce a profit that will satisfy the master. More proof of what I am saying is also said in verse 28, that the faithful servant now having Ten talents, will receive the unfaithful servants' talent, showing that his master is pleased with his bankers' ability. If you have been thinking and feeling inadequate, insufficient, insignificant, inferior, and fearful like the unfaithful servant. It's time to change your perspective and give his money to the bankers so it can earn a profit, and you can have sweet rest. "Store up treasures in heaven where moth and rust do not destroy and where thieves do not break in and steal" (Matthew 6:20). As you give to this ministry your talent is working for you as "an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade, kept in heaven for you" (1 Peter 1:4).

During our last mission trip we prayed with thousands to receive Jesus and be baptized with the Holy Spirit. God stretched out his hand to heal and perform miraculous signs and wonders in the name of Jesus, as he enabled us to speak his word with great boldness. As was said earlier, our reward is the same, so let's help each other fulfill our ability so we will be in charge of many things and go share our Master's happiness. It takes what God has given us to fulfill the great commission, so let us work together for his Glory.

The doors are open now for crusades through out Central America along with churches, prisons, hospitals, and other areas. With your help we will reap the rewards of Jesus sufferings by the seeking and saving of that which is lost. Thank you for being faithful with his money and your ability. "It is a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice pleasing to God." My God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:18-19).

Together in one accord,
Tom

Remember: With your giving, you are On Guard, Alert, Keeping Watch, and Watching that you may have a sweet rest even when you sleep.

Update... On April 2 & 3, 2009 - HOLY HOLY HOLY MINISTRIES will have picked up their crosses, traveled and preached in Las Esperanza, Honduras, to produce another great harvest of souls saved, healed, delivered, and set free for God's Glory. This crusade will be bigger than the crusade ministered in San Pedra Sula, Honduras back in February. Love pledges are needed to off-set costs for lodging, food, buses used to transport individuals to/from the crusade, marketing and campaigning, lighting, and equipment cost. Any amount, great or small, will greatly help the word of God reach those who have never heard the name Jesus.

A gift opens the way for the giver and ushers him into the presence of great. (Proverbs 18:16)
