The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, And he who wins souls is wise. (Proverbs 11:30)

Hearing and Proclaiming the Word

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because He has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor (Luke 4:18-19). Then in verse 21

Jesus says, Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing.

Romans 10:13-15, For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. How then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news! Then verse 17 says, Consequently faith comes from hearing the message and the message is heard through the word of Christ.

I thank God that He is not selfish and gave His only Son Jesus, the eternal life, saving us through the hearing about Him. He says in Matthew 10:27 What I tell you in the dark, speaking in the daylight; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the roofs. (This is what the Spirit is saying ) 2 Corinthians 4:13, It is written, I believed, therefore I have spoken. With that same spirit of faith we also believe and therefore speak. Also 6:2, For He says, In the time of My favor I heard you and in the day of salvation I helped you. I tell you (now is the time) of Gods favor, (now is the day) of salvation. Praise God we have a gospel to preach now, because yesterday is gone and tomorrow may not come. What can I say other than we have the words of eternal life, and what a blessing it is to freely give, even as we have freely received. Everywhere I go I have this zeal to speak in the daylight and proclaim from the roofs the good news of having peace with God through His Son Jesus, the Savior of the world. If only all of us who believe could see the value of a soul saved, it would become our primary purpose in life to make it happen. Seeing the value of a soul belonging to God while ministering to a prisoner in Honduras, who has a sentence of 75 years was awesome. Oh how precious he was as

...we have the words of eternal life, and what a blessing it is to freely give, even as we have freely received.

I saw him radiating with the brightness of the glory of God in the Lord Jesus. Then I ministered the Holy Spirit and he immediately began to speak with the heavenly language with a new living hope. He experienced what it means to truly be set free, receiving instruction on whom, how, and what to live his life for while still here on this earth. It is my joy to include everyone in the body of Christ to share the good news by supporting this ministry with their prayers and offerings.

Together our shout is louder,

Tom
